Dear Aunt Anne

The insurance on the building, as well as on the contents has finally been settled - The insurance on the furnishings and organ was settled in a perfectly satisfactory manner three weeks ago. But now the insurance on the building has just been settled and we are to receive $14,000. While this is not not quite so well as we had hoped - It is yet regarded as a ~~very~~ fair settlement of the claim.

Before beginning to rebuild I would like to see as well as we can what can be done about that cherished neighborhood Guild House named for and in memory of Edward Whitney.

and to that end I would like to come to see you and have a chance to talk over the whole subject with you and with Charles.

If you have any time to give me, I could come either the first of next week or of the week following -

Margaret is very well for her - and all the various affairs which she has in hand seem not to make things go any the worse with her -

Like St. John writing to the 'elect lady whom he loved' I also can say - "Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with brags and pen: but I trust to come unto you and speak face to face that my joy may be full"

I have to be here on Thanksgiving day and as things are now, while our home is a sort of neighborhood Guild house, both Maggie and I can not very well be away at the same time

My salutations to Miss Manning
your most affectionate
George S. P.
